Dear Trustee

Vodafone Group Staff Pension Scheme Important news for members looking to buy an annuity

As you may be aware, Prudential has decided to no longer provide annuities as a way of taking pension income.

We have however set up arrangements for your members looking to take this option.

This free, first class service lets you compare and explore a range of annuities available on the open market.

When a member's ready to retire, just contact us

We'll help you access the full service and explain what you need to do. It's straightforward and easy to follow. Our contact details are below.

Of course if you prefer, you can search across the market yourself to seek out a suitable option for your member. As some plans contain valuable guarantees, please ensure that if you do decide to do this, you're aware of the benefits your member is entitled to under their Prudential plan.

Remember too that Prudential continue to offer a range of other retirement options including drawdown and we'll be pleased to help you with any of these.
